

HAIR SHIONA CATALDO AT CAVALDO'S, CANBERRA, ACT FOR AHFA 2007

hip hair

The crop (thanks to Victoria Beckham and model-of-the-moment Agyness Deyn) was a big hit during the summer but many people have only recently summoned the courage to go for it. It's definitely not one for the faint hearted but fine features plus a delicate face shape make for the perfect marriage with a shorn style. In terms of colour, Akin Konizi predicts that 'hair extremes (with) very blonde blondes' will dominate, so expect to see plenty of icy crops emerging from high street salons this winter!
